

Cerizzi Paul Eros - Dolphinman

Cerizzi Paul Eros is an Italian swimmer and he was born in 1974.

He is known for his exceptional swim achievements that are followed by a lot of media as TV, radio and newspapers. He is known for his long butterfly swims. He crossed the Italian lake "Maggiore" swimming only at butterfly stroke (2500m [approximately 8202 feet] swimming consecutive only at butterfly stroke), and he crossed the Messina Strait attempting the Guinness World Records "furthest swim wearing handcuffs" (3162m approximately 10373 feet)..

He is going to attempt a new, really exciting, Guinness World Record the 9th of June 2012 during the Flowers Sea Swim → "Furthest Swim Wearing Handcuffs on Wrists and on Ankles". You are all invited to see this almost impossible attempt.

History

The 23rd of September 2011

He attempted the Guinness World Record as "Furthest swim wearing handcuffs".

He crossed the famous Strait of Messina wearing handcuffs (3162m approximately 10373 feet). The event was followed by a lot of media: newspapers ("the Gazette of the South", "the Newspaper of Desio", "Il Giorno", etc), radio (Radio two) and televisions (Wave TV and Monza Brianza TV).
